

CINEMA SUBWOOFER C218SW

Pro Cinema. Sounds Great!

Cinema Screen Subwoofer System

Engineered to anchor the most massive cinematic spaces and colossal screens up to 120 feet, the C218SW delivers the ultimate expression of low-frequency power within our Pro Cinema range. This high-performance subwoofer utilises dual 18-inch world-class Lavoce drivers from Italy, housed within a precision-engineered ported enclosure to generate immense, high-impact Low-Frequency Effects (LFE) with absolute control. Fully optimised for the extreme dynamic demands of Dolby Atmos, Dolby 7.1, and DTS:X, the C218SW provides an unparalleled auditory foundation that lets audiences feel the true depth of every scene.
